

Call for Applications – Erasmus+ KA171 Mobility Opportunity (PhD Student – and lecturers -Food Sciences)

As part of the Erasmus+ KA171 programme, the University of Constantine 1 (UC1) is launching a call for applications for a mobility opportunity at West Pomeranian University of Technology, Pologne.

This opportunity is open to regularly enrolled, 08 non-salaried PhD students in INATAA for one semester. The mobility concerns also 02 lecturers (teacher-researchers)

Contact for Acceptance Letter:

Applicants must contact:

Piotr Eljasik <peijasik@zut.edu.pl>

Dr Piotr Eljasik
DEAN'S REPRESENTATIVE
for International Educational Co-operation
Faculty of Food Sciences and Fisheries
West Pomeranian University of Technology, Szczecin
4 K. Królewicza St., 71-550 Szczecin
POLAND

Required Documents:

- Proof of PhD enrollment (academic year 2025/2026)
- Curriculum Vitae (in English)
- Motivation letter specifying the objectives of the mobility (in English)
- English language proficiency certificate (minimum level B2)
- Letter of acceptance from

The complete application file must be submitted to INATAA (postgraduate services) before 10th november 2025.

Incomplete applications will not be considered.